

FOR THE MOST TENACIOUS DEFENSE AGAINST FOREIGN MATERIAL AND DROPPED OBJECTS:

CALL ALPHASOURCE: 215.844.6470 • Support@alphasourceintl.com

Alphasource, a leading provider to the International Power Generation Industry, offers the highest quality Foreign Material Exclusion (FME) control devices meeting NFPA 701 Test Method 2 and NFPA 805 standards. Widely adopted across the U.S. and in over 30 countries, our covers provide efficient, tape-free installation, long-term reusability, and cost savings. Contact Alphasource today for effective and economical solutions to optimize plant efficiency.

Explore our ToolSaver® Drop Prevention Line, designed to mitigate the risks of dropped objects in the workplace. With over 100 unique Tool Tethering products, all certified to ISEA/ANSI 121-2018 standards, The ToolSaver® Product Portfolio caters to a diverse set of tool tethering needs. Our line was developed by professionals with iterative design principles, to ensure that each product is addressing a known dropped object problem experience at worksites across the country. Our industry experts can help you and your team create a customized Dropped Object Prevention Program that saves lives, reduces the risk of injury, and protects critical systems at your Nuclear Power Station.

