

Radwaste Solutions

MARCH/APRIL 2010

Annual Waste Management Show Issue*

Editorial Feature

Groundwater Contamination

WM2010 — Presented by WM Symposia (WMS)
“Improving the Future by Dealing With the Past”

DEADLINE EXTENSION

Ad Space Deadline:

~~Monday, January 18~~

Friday, January 22

Ad Material Due:

~~Friday, January 22~~

Wednesday, January 27

* A copy of this issue will be INCLUDED within all of the attendee and exhibitor registration packets at the 36th Waste Management Conference in Phoenix, Arizona from March 7–11, 2010. This annual event is widely regarded as the premier international conference for the management of radioactive material and related topics. The conference attracts approximately 2,000 decision makers, project managers, and technical and procurement specialists representing the government and private organizations undertaking the global tasks of radioactive material management, decommissioning and site remediation.

Editorial coverage to include:

- 3-D Imaging Allows Hanford Scientists to Better See Waste Plumes
- Six Science Secrets of the Subsurface
- The Industry Groundwater Protection Initiative: A Watershed Moment
- GAO: Opening Yucca Mountain Cheaper than Storage Alternatives
- Dry Cask Storage, Stimulus Dollars, Multiple Agency Regulation . . . and TMI Redux

Additional Circulation

- International Conference on Human Resource Development for Introducing and Expanding Nuclear Power Programmes, Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates on Mar. 14-18
- ANS Student Conference 2010, Ann Arbor Marriott Ypsilanti at Eagle Crest, Ann Arbor, Mich. on Apr. 8-11
- ANS Radiation Protection & Shielding, Isotopes & Radiation, and Biology & Medicine Divisions Joint Topical, Palace Station Hotel and Casino, Las Vegas, Nev. on Apr. 19-23
- World Nuclear Fuel Cycle, Westin Grand Munich, Arabellapark, Munich, Germany on Apr. 27-29
- PHYSOR 2010, Sheraton Station Square Hotel, Pittsburgh, Pa. on May 9-14 May 10-14, Tokyo, Japan

